A young girl with blonde hair is holding a large red flower. The background is a soft, out-of-focus mix of purple and pink colors.

The questions offered in this package are designed to support growth mindset, goal setting, and gratitude, which are three important social emotional skills in their own right.

They inspire children to look inside and at the world around them and with a sense of hope, appreciation, and empowerment, which is part of the reason why they're so engaging

They also invite children and teens to share themselves with others, which despite our shyness is one thing all humans, especially children and teens really want and need to do.
